Attention Men!

New Collars, 5c and 12 1-2c.

SPECIAL DISPLAY BROAD ST. WINDOWS.

The 5c Collars are in 100 qualities, but being "Seconds," the price is cut in half—The serviceability of this Collar, however, is all right.

You'll never notice the imperfections. All shapes and sizes for both men and boys. Wings, Dress, Fold, and Turn-down Collars. You can rely upon them being pure linen even at this low price. They were made in Troy, N. Y. and in that state the laws are very stringent as to stamping falsely anything of this kind. Several unscrupulous manufacturers have found it go to their cost.

The 12 1-2c Collars are the Corliss Coon brand. It's the regular price—but not by any means the regulation Collar at 12 1-2c.

No Collar manufacturer in the world makes as good a collar at this price as the Corliss Coon Co. This one is of fine cambric in all the new shapes.

The cambric is better, the finish is better and the styles more up-to-date than in any other brand.

THE LOOSE LEAF TOBACCO MARKET

High-Water Mark on Sun-Cured Stock Reached This Week.

WRAPPERS MUCH IN DEMAND

All Grades Firm—Large Sales Are Looked for During Next Week.

The week's sales of loose leaf tobacco closed yesterday with a strong, even an animated, market. The high water mark for the season was reached on sun-cured stock when a pile of good wrappers belonging to J. D. Bowles, of Hanover county, was knocked out at the Shockoe Warehouse break for $11. Another Hanover man, who sold at Shockoe, went home rejoicing over the fact that he had sold a pile of similar tobacco, but not so good, for $27. A number of farmers at this house were made glad with figures at and slightly above $20. Over at Shelburne's Warehouse there were also some happy sun-cured raisers, one of whom, Mr. E. S. Maynard, of Hanover, sold a pile of wrappers for $33. Mr. T. W. Coker, of the same county, sold for $28, while Mr. Joe Nicholas, of Louisa county, sold a good pile for $25. The thirty-day dollar, as well as some of these other high priced lots, were bought by the R. A. Patterson Tobacco Company, to be worked into some of the famous sun-cured brands. W. T. Hancock was also a buyer of some of the extra fine $25s, &c. and used the brands of the good Western Company. At Crenshaw's Warehouse Messrs. Frazer and Tompkins, commission merchants, made some gratifying sales, among them the following lots for Mr. J. A. Houchens, of Gloucester county: 185 pounds at $20, 90 pounds at $21, 200 pounds at $22, 50 pounds at $23, 200 pounds at $24, 50 pounds at $25, 200 pounds at $26, 50 pounds at $27, 200 pounds
